Great Boost for Cancer Services thanks to Daffodil Day Collection in Mountrath

Once again we had a very successful Daffodil Day here in Mountrath when a total of € 9,428.00 was raised for the Irish Cancer Society. We express thanks to all our generous donors and all our volunteers who helped out on the day. Funds raised on Daffodil Day provide services to people coping with cancer in the local area, such as night nursing, driving people to treatment centres, telephone advice - among other support services.
