Fintan's Church this Mass will be celebrated

The Homemaker

She works around the clock it seems,
Washing clothes and cleaning things.
At times content, at times despairing,
But always there and always caring.
Taking on the daily tasks,

Responding to the voice that asks:
"Mom, have you...." you know the rest.
But do you know how mothers bless?
Mothers run a home, that's true.
But there's so much more to what they do.

Beyond the making of a house
They make a life, they lift a spouse.
They raise up doctors, raise up teachers.
They raise managers and preachers.
They raise architects, and builders,

Soldiers, presidents, center fielders.
Every daughter, every son;
The homemaker shaped every one.
Our lifetimes bear a mother's seal,
Because mothers, they make love real.
