Arranging Anniversary Mass or Month's Mind Mass

The traditional way of arranging an Anniversary Mass remembrance was by visiting the Sacristy before or after Mass and making the necessary arrangement with the priest, who wrote the intention into the Anniversaries Diary, there and then.

However, since Covid this practice has changed.

Arrangements for Anniversary Mass remembrances and Month's Mind Masses are, more often than not, now arranged by email, text message, whatsapp, by phone, among many other ways. Which is great.

On the down-side, it can be quiet difficult to keep track of all these ways. - Sometimes emails can go to folders on the computer other than the main folder and are not seen straight away. The same can apply to text messages and Whatsapp messages. This can cause a problem when I have no knowledge of these emails / messages coming in and are sometimes not detected at the time.

Can I ask you -

if you send me an email, text message or a message on Whatsapp, or any way, other than visiting the Sacristy, requesting an Anniversary Mass remembrance or arrangements for a Month's Mind Mass and don't hear from me or don't see the relevant name / names in the Newsletter, please give me a call on 087 241 1594

"THE CARESS AND THE SMILE"

MEETING OF POPE FRANCIS WITH GRANDPARENTS, THE ELDERLY AND GRANDCHILDREN

ADDRESS OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS

Paul VI Audience Hall

Saturday, 27 April 2024

Dear grandparents and dear grandchildren, good morning and welcome!

I greet Archbishop Vincenzo Paglia and all those who collaborated to organize this moment of celebration. And particular thanks go to the many show-business personalities who wished to participate. Thank you! We all have a grandfather or a grandmother, two grandfathers, two grandmothers. Having a grandparent is a beautiful experience. But even Italy has a "grandfather", and for this reason, I want to greet "the grandfather of Italy", [Lino Banfi (pictured)], who is present here.

It is nice to welcome you here, grandparents and grandchildren, young and not so young. Today we see, as the Psalm says, how good it is to be together (cf. Ps 133). One has but to look at you to understand this, because there is love between you. And it is precisely on this that I would like us to reflect a moment: on the fact that love makes us better, it makes us richer and it makes us wiser, at any age.

First: love makes us better. You too show this, that you make each other better by loving each other. And I say this to you as a "grandfather", with the desire to share the ever-youthful faith that unites all generations. I too received it from my grandmother, from whom I first learned about Jesus who loves us, who never leaves us alone, and who urges us too to be close to each other and never to exclude anyone. I still remember the first prayers my grandmother taught me. It was from her that I heard the story of that family where there was the grandfather

Memo re. World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly – 28th July 2024

Pope Francis has in recent years designated the Sunday closest to the Feast of Ss. Joachim and Anne as 'World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly'. The National Pilgrimage of the Catholic Grandparents Association takes place that day in Knock and indeed the theme of Reek Sunday is also this year being dedicated to World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly. This is the 4th World Day and the theme this year is 'Do not cast me off in my old age' (Ps.71:9) I would ask you to do what you can to promote this day at parish/diocesan level. Grandparents and the Elderly are central components of the life of every parish.

A few possible ways to celebrate the Day:

- I suggest that a candle be lit in the sanctuary of every church by a grandparent or an older person to recognise, acknowledge and celebrate the contribution of grandparents and the elderly to our parishes
- Both the Message from Pope Francis and his Audience Address from 27 April last provide great stimulation for a homily (both attached)
- I also attach sample 'Prayers of the Faithful' kindly composed by Fr. Seamus O'Connell (St. Patrick's Pontifical University, Maynooth) for use on the day, I am attaching a PDF and Word version, in case there may be local edits required. He has tied in the prayers beautifully to the scripture of the day.
- I enclose a reflection written by Betty Murphy (Carlow) one of the founder members of the Catholic Grandparents Association on what it means to be part of that association and indeed to be a grandparent.

- Finally the Catholic Grandparents Prayer written by Pope Benedict XVI and a more recent Prayer offered by the Dicastery – either could work as a Post Communion Reflection

Many thanks for promoting and supporting this day, ✠ Denis Nulty

Chair of Council for Marriage & the Family 15 July 2024

Prayer for Grandparents

By Pope Benedict XVI

Lord Jesus, you were born of the Virgin Mary.

the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne.

Look with love on grandparents the world over.

Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church and for all of society.

Support them as they grow older.

May they continue to be for their families strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardians of noble domestic ideals, living treasuries of sound religious traditions.

Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience.

Lord Jesus, help families and society to value the presence and role of grandparents. May they never be ignored or excluded, but always encounter respect and love. Help them to live serenely and to feel welcomed in all the years of life which you give them.

Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen

JIM DEEDS

AUGUST 26–29

Jim Deeds, from Belfast, worked for the Diocese of Down and Connor as Assistant Director of the Living Church Office, working extensively in the parishes across his diocese, forming Pastoral Councils, Ministry of Welcome teams and other leadership groups. Jim now works as an author, poet, retreat giver and pastoral worker across Ireland and beyond, often called upon as a public speaker/guest preacher at Novenas, missions etc. He is a regular contributor to BBC Radio Ulster on their Thought for the Day segment and Sunday Sequence programme, discussing all things religious and spiritual. ERIC DOWSETT

Eric has been sharing 'Clearing,' changing the way we view ourselves and our relationship to the environment for over 30 years.

Inspired from an early age by 'memories' of the teachings of the Buddha, Eric's path eventually led him to working 'clearing' environmental energies. The work evolved over time to working with people and subsequently became a tool to use for his own personal growth, for you cannot 'clear' the energy of another if you yourself cannot embrace their issues.

By following this path he was able to move through a lot of his own past conditioning.

Now, the author of 6 books, with countless workshops in his resumé, he has simplified the work to be-ing, rather than do-ing.

Currently living in Switzerland, he has taught all around the world and continues to share his awakening understanding through residential retreats.

A young boy with short brown hair is standing in the foreground of a large stadium. He is wearing a red Gaelic football jersey with white trim, white shorts, and red socks. The jersey features the GAA logo, the number 10, and the slogan "GIVE RESPECT GET RESPECT". The background shows a large crowd of spectators in the stands and a green field with players in the distance.

Congratulations to Liam Meade who played hurling for Cork at halftime of last Sunday's All Ireland Hurling Final in Croke Park. 🏆

Hope it was a wonderful experience and a very special occasion for Liam.

Well Done, Indeed, Liam
