Bishop Denis Nulty Announces New Lay Pastoral Minister Training Programme in the Diocese

The Diocese of Kildare and Leighlin, under the leadership of Bishop Denis Nulty, is inviting people with the courage to step forward and answer an important call to service. A new training programme has been developed to equip laypeople with the essential skills they need to serve as Lay Pastoral Ministers within parishes and pastoral areas.

The Lay Pastoral Ministers (Diploma in Pastoral Ministry, Level 7) programme aims to nurture and develop the talents of lay leaders, preparing them to undertake significant roles within their parishes and pastoral areas. "The role of laypeople in our Church is crucial to ensure we invigorate faith in our communities.

This is an exciting and important opportunity for people who want to explore their faith on a deeper level and be part of the future of our Church."

Members of the public are being invited to a series of information meetings across the diocese to find out more about the Diploma in Pastoral Ministry, Level 7. These meetings will offer an opportunity to anybody who is curious to learn more about the course, its objectives, and the benefits it offers to participants and their communities.

Information Sessions take place as follows:

- Monday, 4th November: Mount Wolseley, Tullow
- Tuesday, 5th November: Westgrove Hotel, Clane
- Wednesday, 6th November: Solas Bhríde, Kildare Town
- Thursday, 7th November: Dolmen Hotel, Carlow
- Wednesday, 13th November: Parish Centre, Leighlinbridge
- Thursday, 14th November: Mount Saint Anne's, Killenard

All meetings will commence at 7.30 pm, with tea and coffee available from 7.15 pm

Further information from Patrick Roche, Diocesan Director of Parish Development, Ph 083/8305681; email parisgdevelopment@kandle.ie.

Arranging Anniversary Mass or Month's Mind Mass

The traditional way of arranging an Anniversary Mass remembrance was by visiting the Sacristy before or after Mass and making the necessary arrangement with the priest, who wrote the intention into the Anniversaries Diary, there and then.

However, since Covid this practice has changed.

Arrangements for Anniversary Mass remembrances and Month's Mind Masses are, more often than not, now arranged by email, text message, whatsapp, by phone, among many other ways. Which is great.

On the down-side, it can be quiet difficult to keep track of all these ways. - Sometimes emails can go to folders on the computer other than the main folder and are not seen straight away. The same can apply to text messages and Whatsapp messages. This can cause a problem when I have no knowledge of these emails / messages coming in and are sometimes not detected at the time.

Can I ask you -

if you send me an email, text message or a message on Whatsapp, or any way, other than visiting the Sacristy, requesting an Anniversary Mass remembrance or arrangements for a Month's Mind Mass and don't hear from me or don't see the relevant name / names in the Newsletter, please give me a call on 087 241 1594

We keep and hold in our thoughts and prayers

CHILDREN'S DAY OF MISSION PRAYER

FRIDAY, 11TH OCTOBER 2024

A collection of prayer resources to help schools, parishes and communities celebrate

Here in Ireland, we have a deep-rooted tradition of supporting missionaries. Being missionary is an inherent part of being Christian. But if we want our youngest Christians to engage with the missionary outreach of the Church, we need to invest time, energy and resources. This is why, since 2007, we've celebrated Children's Day of Mission Prayer. Held on the second Friday of October, it is a celebration that motivates and encourages girls and boys to put their love into action through prayer and giving.

Thanks to children living out our motto Children Helping Children, the Missio family supports millions of the world's poorest children every year. This is done when children in over 120 countries, including Ireland, offer solidarity and hope through their prayers and donations. As a result, thousands of children's projects, led by missionaries, are supported. To find out more or to support our work, contact:

Missio Ireland, 64 Lower Rathmines Road, Dublin, D06 N2H1
T: +353 (01) 497 2035 E: info@missio.ie

Children's Day of Mission Prayer 2024

'Share the Good News' is the theme for this year's Children's Day of Mission Prayer. As always, we want to make this day of celebration as large and inclusive as possible. Regardless of where you are on the day, we invite you and the children of your parish, school, or community to be part of this uplifting celebration! The day can be celebrated anywhere: in a local parish church, parish centre, school, classrooms or at home. Remember, children do not have to donate to participate, although any support given is always greatly appreciated. The most important part of the day is encouraging our young ones to pray for children around the world, who are just like them but have less. If you can't hold a celebration on Friday, 11th October, then please consider using these resources on another day during Mission Month. Thank you for allowing the children in your care to be there for others!

Prayer Space

Prepare the prayer space with a large globe or map of the world along with five coloured candles representing the five continents where the Missio Family supports children around the world – one red candle, one green, one yellow, one white and one blue (if you cannot find coloured candles use white ones and put coloured ribbons around them). If you have one of our blue donation globes, you can add this to the prayer space also. If not, include a donation jar with some small coins inside. Add some drawings from the children based on their understanding of sharing the Good News and the Bible open on Acts 2:1-13.
