Kevin Moroney, New Line Road. Formerly Killarney. R.I.P.

We pray for Kevin who died peacefully at Mountpleasant Lodge Nursing Home, Kilcock, on Tues. 16th Sept. Kevin's Funeral Mass was celebrated in St. Edmund's Church, Castletown on Sat. 20th Sept. followed by burial in Mountrath Cemetery. We extend sympathy to Rhonda, Kevin, Deirdre, Sean, Sinead and their families, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and their families, brothers Brian, Fergus, sister Mabel and their families, extended family, relatives, neighbours and friends.

Kevin served as member of an Garda Siochana here with us in Mountrath in the 60's and served as detective at Portlaoise Garda Station afterwards, until his retirement in 1989.

Thomas (Tom) Doheny, Fr. O'Connor Cresc. R.I.P.

We pray for Tom who died peacefully at Regional Hosp., Portlaoise on Wed. 18th Sept. Tom's Funeral Mass was celebrated in St. Fintan's Church, Mountrath on Sat. 20th Sept. followed by burial in Mountrath Cemetery. We extend sympathy to Martha, Francis, Thomas and Anthony and their families, grandchildren and their families, great-grandchildren, brothers Joe, Michael and Donie, sister Marie, and their families, extended family, relatives, neighbours and a large circle of friends.

As I sometimes say, when referring to someone who lived a long and full life, that they had many irons in the fire. Tom Doheny certainly had many irons in the fire during his lifetime. As well as caring for his family and the day job, Tom was member of F.C.A. for 38 years, was involved in the Red Cross, The Irish Heart Foundation and was Laois safety officer for N.A. R. G. C. (among other things)

May Kevin and Tom rest in the peace of Christ

Arranging Anniversary Mass or Month's Mind Mass

The traditional way of arranging an Anniversary Mass remembrance was by visiting the Sacristy before or after Mass and making the necessary arrangement with the priest, who wrote the intention into the Anniversaries Diary, there and then. However, since Covid this practice has changed.

Arrangements for Anniversary Mass remembrances and Month's Mind Masses are, more often than not, now arranged by email, text message, whatsapp, by phone, among many other ways. Which is great.

On the down-side, it can be quite difficult to keep track of all these ways. - Sometimes emails can go to folders on the computer other than the main folder and are not seen straight away. The same can apply to text messages and Whatsapp. messages. This can cause a problem when I have no knowledge of these emails / messages coming in and are sometimes not detected at the time.

Can I ask you - if you send me an email, text message or a message on Whatsapp, or any way, other than visiting the Sacristy, requesting an Anniversary Mass remembrance or arrangements for a Month's Mind Mass and don't hear from me or don't see the relevant name / names in the Newsletter,

please give me a call on 087 241 1594

Kildare and Leighlin

Liturgy Conference

Sat. 20th Sept.

Report on Liturgy Conference held in the Cathedral in Carlow on Saturday last, 20th Sept.

Hosted by Bishop Denis Nulty.

Over 200 people gathered in Carlow on Sat. last for a day of prayer, reflection, and renewal at the Liturgy Conference with the theme

It is Good for Us to Be Here.

Hosted by Bishop Denis and the Diocesan Commission for Liturgical Formation of Kildare and Leighlin, the gathering welcomed participants from the 56 parishes of the diocese, along with speakers and guests from neighbouring dioceses.

A highlight of the conference was the keynote address by Dr Jessie Rogers of Saint Patrick's College, Maynooth. In her talk How Can We Sing the Lord's Song in a Strange Land? (Psalms 137), Dr Rogers offered a fresh and compelling approach to reading and praying with Scripture – particularly the Old Testament. She spoke of God's enduring presence alongside the poor, the marginalised, the widowed, and the orphaned. She drew a profound connection between the God of the Old Testament and the person of Jesus, who walks with sinners, absorbs violence, and transforms it into love.

Mr Martin Foster, another featured speaker, explored the Sunday liturgy as a space of encounter: with Christ and with community. He encouraged participants to reflect on how liturgical celebrations can be made more inclusive, engaging, and meaningful for all.

Throughout the day, participants attended a variety of workshops designed to deepen both spiritual understanding and practical liturgical skills. Bishop Denis told The Way, "This has been a wonderful gathering that has enabled us to reflect on different aspects of liturgy. I am especially grateful to Dr Jessie Rogers, Martin Foster, Julie Kavanagh, Gemma Mulligan, Mary Connolly, Father Peter O'Kane, Father Robert Petrisor and Ian Callinan for their leadership in this important aspect of Church life."

The conference, inspired by the story of the Transfiguration, echoed the disciples' words, "It is good for us to be here." And, like those disciples, participants left with renewed energy and a sense of mission.

Keynote talks from the day will soon be available at www.kandle.ie, to encourage continued reflection and engagement.

Why Sunday Matters

Letter from the Irish Bishops
Conference

IRISH CATHOLIC
BISHOPS' CONFERENCE
SÉIMHÍOCHT AGAS BAITLÉACH ÉIREANN

Why Sunday Matters

As we journey through this Jubilee Year of Hope, we, the Irish Bishops, warmly invite all Catholics to reflect on the immense significance of Sunday Mass and, for those who have not yet done so, to return with renewed joy to the celebration of the Eucharist.

Sunday has always been the day of the Lord: the day of resurrection, the day of rest, the day of Eucharist. From the very beginning of our Christian faith, Sunday has been central to the life of the Church and remains the heart of Christian practice. It is on this day that we gather as a community, united in our love for Christ, to encounter the risen Lord and be nourished in body and soul.

The Mass is not just a ritual, it is the source and summit of our faith. It is where we encounter Christ in His living presence, and it is through the Eucharist that we are strengthened to live as true disciples. Attending Mass on Sundays, or its vigil on Saturday evening, is not just an obligation; it is a profound privilege and a chance to experience God's love in a deeply personal way. As we come to this sacred celebration let us do so with hearts full of gratitude for the precious gift of Christ's presence among us.

How can you enrich your experience of Mass and make it a central part of your life?

How can young people best engage in our Sunday celebration?

Our invitation to reflect on Sunday Mass is presented through the lens of Synodality – Communion, Participation, and Mission – reminding us that the Eucharist is not just a personal encounter with Christ but also a communal experience that unites us all as the People of God. For deeper reflection, we have also provided thoughtful questions at the end of this message to guide your prayers and meditations.

Why Sunday Matters: Sunday Mass creates and celebrates Communion

What does it mean for you to have a real encounter with Jesus in the Mass?
What could it mean?

Sunday Mass is a vital encounter with the risen Lord, the One who gives our lives ultimate meaning and purpose. Through our baptism we bear the name 'Christian'. This identity shapes who we are and calls us to follow Jesus, who is 'the way, the truth, and the life' (John 14:6). Through the celebration of Sunday Mass, we experience a life-giving encounter and communion with Christ. Just as the two disciples encountered Jesus on the road to Emmaus and recognised Him in the breaking of the bread (Luke 24:35), so too we meet Him in the Eucharist.

Our identity as Christians is not solitary but shared. On Sundays, we gather not only as individuals but as the Church; the Body of Christ. In the celebration of the Eucharist, we affirm our communion with one another and with Christ. Pope Saint John Paul II emphasised that 'none is as vital or as community-forming as the Sunday celebration of the Lord's day and His Eucharist.' This gathering creates a bond of unity, solidarity, and love, as we come together to worship as one body, with one voice, in praise of God.

Why Sunday Matters: an invitation to Participate

The journey of faith often comes with its own set of challenges. Many, particularly the younger generation, feel disconnected from the Church due to past abuses and how these were addressed. Alongside this, the pressures of modern life, the increasing levels of anxiety and mental health difficulties – especially among young people – together with the lingering effects of the pandemic, have contributed to a sense of distance from the Church. However, Sunday Eucharist continues to be a source of hope, life, and profound meaning. It invites us to participate in the celebration of Christ's death and resurrection, the Paschal Mystery. In this sacred celebration, we have the opportunity to be transformed, to receive God's grace, and to become the best versions of ourselves. As we navigate life, with all its joys and struggles, the Eucharist offers us the community and support we need to flourish and grow in faith.

How can the scriptures proclaimed at Mass inspire us to love as Jesus loved?

Mass is not just a personal act of devotion; it is a communal act of worship. We go to God together. The Sunday Mass is where the Church is most visibly alive, and where every member of the community plays an essential role. Each person's participation is needed for the Church to truly live. It is important to gather physically for Mass, and although technology is helpful, it can never replace the tangible experience of being with the community as we listen to God's word and receive the Body of Christ. We invite you to consider how your presence at Mass can contribute to making the Church visible and alive.

Sunday Mass at Mount St. Alphonsus Church, Umarick

We are deeply thankful to priests and all those who gather to celebrate Mass. Special gratitude goes to those involved in liturgical ministries, such as Ministers of the Word, of Holy Communion, Music Ministers, Sacristans, and Altar Servers. Encouraging the return of young people as Altar Servers is especially important and should be actively supported by their families and parish. The involvement of young people brings vitality to the liturgy and contributes hugely to their own faith formation.

Why Sunday Matters: Sunday Mass makes us Missionaries

The Sunday Mass is not only a time for worship but also for mission. Having listened to God's word and received the gift of Christ's Body and Blood, we are sent to live out our faith in the world as missionaries; sent to share the love of Christ with others. As we participate in the Sunday Mass, we receive not only spiritual nourishment but also the strength to live out our Christian mission in daily life.

How does your participation in Sunday Mass inspire you to live out your mission as a follower of Christ?

As the late Pope Francis reminded us, 'We do not go to Mass in order to give something to God, but to receive what we truly need from Him. In this spirit, we are called to approach the Eucharist not out of obligation, but with a deep desire for spiritual transformation.' This is why attending Mass on Sundays is so vital – it nurtures and nourishes our faith and prepares us for the mission to which we are called. We invite you to reflect on how your participation in Sunday Mass helps you to live as a missionary disciple, bringing the hope and joy of the Gospel to those around you, and to the world at large.

Since the COVID-19 pandemic, many Catholics have faced challenges attending Mass due to health concerns. For those still unable to attend, the Church offers Communion to the sick and housebound. For those who can, it's time to return and celebrate the Eucharist together. While virtual options have helped, they can't replace the in-person experience of communal worship. Returning to Mass strengthens us as the Body of Christ, sharing in the sacred celebration.

Reflecting on our Sunday Mass

The purpose of this message is to encourage you to reflect on what is special about Sunday and what it means to you, and, if you no longer attend, to consider returning to Mass. How can you enrich your experience of Mass and make it a central part of your life?

We invite individuals, families, and parish groups to reflect on the following questions and to consider how you can contribute to a more vibrant and welcoming celebration of Sunday Mass in your community.

Easter Sunday Mass in St Mary's Pro-Cathedral, Dublin 2025

Questions for personal and/or family reflection

- How can I enrich my experience of Mass and make it a central part of my life?
- Is this message calling me to any change in how I spend my Sunday?
- How can I best engage more young people in our celebration?
- Who can I share this message and its contents with?

Questions for Parish Leadership, Liturgy Groups, Parish Pastoral Councils and other Ministry Groups

- What makes our Sunday celebration alive?
- Why do we think people in our parish go to Mass, or do not?
- Can we do more to explain and offer catechesis on the Sunday Mass?
- Do visitors feel welcome into our celebrations? Can we be more social?
- How can we be more welcoming to those who have found it difficult to return to Mass since the pandemic?
- What can we do in our local parish to help bring about a richer celebration of Sunday Mass for all ages?
- What has been the impact of online Masses on our parish celebration?
- Do we need to review Mass times or the number of weekend Masses?

Jubilee year
Pilgrims of Hope

Parishes Alive Day

On Sat. 21st June 2025, Bishop Denis Nulty along with the Diocesan Pastoral Council, hosted a faith conference attended by over 100 parishioners and clergy from around the diocese. The title of the day was "Parishes Alive - Moving Forward in Hope!" The event took place in Carlow College, St. Patrick's, and marked the second annual Parishes Alive day in the Diocese. A report on the day was prepared and is now available on the diocesan website www.kandle.ie. or

Jubilee Year 2025.

Pilgrims of Hope

During the 18th and 19th Century in the time of persecution and the penal laws, the Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin resided in Allen Parish. People attended Mass at the Priests Corner Mass Rock in Ballyteague. As part of the Jubilee year - Pilgrims of Hope - Bishop Denis Nulty will celebrate Mass at the Priests Corner Mass Rock in Ballyteague on Sunday 15th June at 2pm.

For people who wish to walk the 2.5kms in pilgrimage, please assemble at 12.30 pm at the GAA clubhouse in Ballyteague W91 VEW8. For people who do not wish to walk, car parking will be available beside the Mass Rock which will be signposted on the day.

The cross of Christ is the hope that cannot ever be abandoned because we are always in need of it, especially in the most difficult moments.

The Cross, in the shape of a sail, is transformed into an anchor that imposes itself over the waves in motion. A universal symbol of Hope.

The figures represent humanity from the four corners of the World. They are embracing each other to illustrate the solidarity between the peoples, as the first holds onto the cross.

The rough sea is a reminder of the difficulties of the pilgrimage of life. Often, personal events as well as those of the world, press on us more intensely, demanding a greater hope.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son,

Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts

by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,

when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,

your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us,

Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,

be glory and praise for ever. Amen.

Season of Creation 2025

1st Sept. to 4th Oct.

Peace with Creation

The Season of Creation has a special significance for the Catholic Church, particularly since the late Pope Francis established 1st September as an Annual World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation.

This year's theme is "Peace with Creation", and it is inspired by the passage from Isaiah 32:14-18,

"My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places."

In a world of challenges and division, marked by war and climate change, how can we as people of faith create and work towards peace with creation?

24th September 2025

Over 200 people gathered in Carlow on Saturday, 20 September, for a day of prayer, reflection, and renewal at the Liturgy Conference with the theme It is Good for Us to Be Here. Hosted by Bishop Denis Nulty and the Diocesan Commission for Liturgical Formation of Kildare and Leighlin, the gathering welcomed participants from the 56 parishes of the diocese, along with speakers and guests from neighbouring dioceses.

The day began with morning prayer in the Cathedral of the Assumption of Blessed Virgin Mary (pictured), and Bishop Nulty warmly welcomed all present, inviting them to enter into the spirit of the day with open hearts and minds.

A highlight of the conference was the keynote address by Dr Jessie Rogers of Saint Patrick's College, Maynooth. In her talk How Can We Sing the Lord's Song in a Strange Land? (Psalms 137), Dr Rogers offered a fresh and compelling approach to reading and praying with Scripture – particularly the Old Testament.

She spoke of God's enduring presence alongside the poor, the marginalised, the widowed, and the orphaned.

Many of those in attendance described the experience as uplifting.

One comment on social media captured the atmosphere posting,

"Thank you Kildare and Leighlin Diocese for hosting a wonderful day.

Very well organised and wonderful speakers and workshops.

We all came away feeling brighter and inspired."

Tax Back Scheme    Mountrath Parish

Once again, I want to renew my appreciation to you for the ways you supported the Parish and us, the priests of the parish, over the past year. We are deeply grateful.

Donations to Mountrath Parish of over €250 have the potential to increase your contribution to Parish funds by 31% through participation in the Tax Back Scheme. It is of huge benefit to the Parish if we know the amount parishioners donate and the name of the donors. Hence this year we are sending out numbered boxes to all households in the Parish.

We sent out CHY3 Forms to eligible parishioners ( who donated over € 250 ) for the first time in 2023 and we were able to claim back over € 13,739 for the years 2021 and 2022 . This is of immense benefit to the Parish. Thank you to everyone who has joined this scheme - it is very much appreciated.

If you receive a CHY3 Form later on in the Spring please consider completing the details and returning it . If you would like more information please contact me.

If you are already part of the Tax Back Scheme — Thank You

If you are not yet part of the tax back Scheme, I ask you to consider becoming part of it - It is of huge benefit to the Parish

Thank you for your cooperation in this regard.

News From Around The Diocese

Parishes Alive Day

On Sat. 21st June 2025, Bishop Denis Nulty along with the Diocesan Pastoral Council, hosted a faith conference attended by over 100 parishioners and clergy from around the diocese. The title of the day was "Parishes Alive - Moving Forward in Hope!" The event took place in Carlow College, St. Patrick's, and marked the second annual Parishes Alive day in the Diocese. A report on the day was prepared and is now available on the diocesan website www.kandle.ie.

Irish Cancer Society's Transport Service

Volunteer Drivers Needed

The Irish Cancer Society's Transport Service is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers in your community. Your time can help to continue the vital service of providing transport for patients attending cancer treatment appointments.

If you have a minimum of 2 days per month to spare, a valid driving license, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you're the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. Your generosity can ease the journey for many during a challenging time, offering comfort and support when it's needed most.

Full training will be provided. There are a number of essential post-drive administration tasks that will require either existing knowledge of basic computer or IT skills, or the willingness to acquire such skills (such as scanning and uploading documents or attending virtual meetings).

For more information and to become a volunteer driver, contact Monica at volunteer@irishcancer.ie.
