Sr. Gerard Majella (Mary Therese) Egan. R.I.P.

We pray for Sr. Gerard who died peacefully in McAuley Nursing Home, Beaumont on Fri. June 24th. Born on 17th August 1929 to Margaret and Fintan Egan, Borris-in-Ossory, Mary Therese was educated at the local Sisters of Mercy Primary School and completed her Secondary Education at Brigidine Convent, Mountrath. She entered the Sisters of Mercy at Carysfort Park in 1952 and made her Final Profession in 1957. She trained as a nurse in the Mater Hospital from 1951 and during her lifelong ministry there as theatre nurse she was involved in numerous programmes and developments. In 1975, Sr. Gerard led the nursing team when Professor Maurice Nelligan performed the first heart bypass surgery in Ireland. She did further studies in operating theatre techniques in Hammersmith, London in 1969 and later obtained a Diploma in Education at the Royal College of Surgeons, Dublin.

After "retiring" Sr. Gerard set up the "Mater Thrift Shop" and also organised an Annual Art Exhibition in the Hospital where she raised a staggering €2 Million for Mater Hosp. funds over five years.

Sr. Gerard was superior in the Mater Convent from 1988 to 1993. She had a wonderful warm personality and character, was a woman of prayer and generously shared her time and talents with all whom she interacted.

We extend sympathy to Sr. Gerard's family, sisters Frances (Coyne) and Ursula (Mulhall) and their families, sister-in-law Elizabeth, brothers-in-law Michael and Shem, nieces and nephew, grandnieces and grandnephews, colleagues, her many friends and her Mercy Community.

May Neill, Margaret (Maggie) and Sr. Majella rest in the peace of Christ
